POSTLUDE

RESPONSIVE READING:

Colossians 1:15-24

Leader: Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature:

People: For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

Leader: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

People: And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.

Leader: For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

People: And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

Leader: And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

People: In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unproveable in his sight:

Leader: If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;

.. All: Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church:

A message from our Pastor

Praise the Lord, Saints!

Artificial Intelligence (AI) is gradually becoming a great part of society. This science promises to replace the normal operations and decision-making of humanity. It is argued that AI will enhance the quality of life while decreasing human error.

While it is admirable that AI will be an asset for us in some cases, I am suspicious that it will become a liability for the church. Our faithful allegiance to advanced technology may leave us vulnerable to prefer AI Pastors instead of human. Let's be careful, prayerful and respectful towards God by keeping His Word the reality that it is instead of artificially playing with it.

Yours because of Christ Jesus ,
Pastor H.B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.
God bless
