POSTLUDE

RESPONSIVE READING:

John 11:38-44

Leader: Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

People: Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

Leader: Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

People: Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

Leader: And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

People: And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

... All: And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the Lord, Saints!

Civil unrest plagues Haiti tremendously. The innocent victims are the people who must make immediate decisions on who to follow. Government officials are being forced out of their positions by rebels who claim they must govern instead. So, the people are caught in the crosshairs of indecision and war.

Many lives are being lost but our prayers are that they are spiritually saved. Churches from around the world and especially here in Detroit, have supported Haiti for many years because of their impoverished, internationally ignored community. This is too small of a space to detail the importance of our support, but I urge you to keep praying for Haiti. Just remember, sometimes others have it worse than you do. Be content but not complacent.

Yours because of Christ Jesus ,
Pastor H.B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.
God bless
