POSTLUDE

Church Sacred Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour; and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Saviour in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

When we remove from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the LORD, Saints!

It is very important to take extra care of yourself. Make sure that your diet is well planned by consuming the necessary nutrients, which promotes good health. Your mental state of being is also precious because of what it has to process on a daily basis. There is an old saying that, as a person thinks, so are they.

I urge you, therefore, my beloved, to continuously saturate and feed your spirit with the Word of God first and foremost daily. A sound, synchronized spirit with God is essential to your wellbeing. A powerful, strong spirit is your greatest asset during physical and mental challenges. Flesh and blood are always seeking battle against your spirit, but they cannot prevail when they rise up against the Holy Spirit which is in you. Stay strong and powerful with the Holy Spirit that is within you.

Yours because of Christ Jesus,

Pastor H.B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.
God bless.
