Church Sacred Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour; and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Saviour in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

When we remove from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the LORD, Saints!

Thank you for all of your prayers, support and birthday wishes! This year has been my greatest birthday celebration ever. Celebrating with you over the years is among my fondest memories.

Your fellowship at True Love makes the journey to God's Kingdom more enjoyable and exciting. If there were more Saints like you, imagine the glory God would receive and the blessings He would bestow upon us individually and collectively. Let's keep praising and worshipping the Lord Jesus in spirit and in truth. I love you.

Yours because of Christ Jesus,
Pastor H.B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.
God bless.

Pastor's Birthday!

As we bring our heartfelt tributes to a close, let this final opportunity inspire us to reflect on the blessings and friendships we share within our church. Today, as the sanctuary fills with gratitude and celebration, may every blessing you offer today return to you multiplied, strengthening the foundation of love and faith our church is built upon. Together, let us continue to honor not only our Pastor, but also the shared journey of faith that unites us all.

May this celebration strengthen the bonds within our congregation and remind us of the joy that comes from honoring those who lead with kindness and faith. Thank you for joining in this special moment as we uplift our Pastor and continue to build a loving, supportive church community together.

The box will be available today until the end of service.
