RESPONSIVE READING:

1 Thessalonians 5:1-10

Leader: But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

People: For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

Leader: For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

People: But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

Leader: Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

People: Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

Leader: For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

People: But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

Leader: For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

... All: Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the LORD, Saints!

The days keep on rolling by. Before you can complete a one day task, the next day merges in with another task. One task you can accomplish within a day is to be sure you pray.

However long or short you pray, be sure to pray every day. Your prayer, from your heart, means more to God than you realize. When God hears from you, it covers a multitude of your transgressions.

Be not dismayed, whatever be the tide, God does take care of you. Take care of yourself with prayer and have a great Labor Day holiday.

Yours because of Christ Jesus,

Pastor Herbert B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.
God Bless.
