RESPONSIVE READING:

John 1:43-51

Leader: The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

People: Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

Leader: Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

People: And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

Leader: Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

People: Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

Leader: Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

People: Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

... All: And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the LORD, Saints!

My soul is delighted for having served True Love Missionary Baptist Church over the years. Your kindness, prayers and thoughtfulness have been greatly appreciated and an inspiration to my spiritual growth.

As we continue to work towards building the Lord's kingdom, please continue to be strong in the faith, courageous in your walk and committed to do what God has appointed you to do. I love you, True Love and thank God for you accepting me as your spiritual leader.

Yours because of Jesus Christ,

*Pastor Herbert B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.
God bless*

Taking it to the Altar

Take your worries, concerns and prayers to the altar and leave them there.

'Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.'

Philippians 4:6-7 (KJV)

Rev. Warfield's spiritual journey began at the age of eight when he accepted Christ at Calvary Baptist Church. For over three decades, he served faithfully as a lay member prior to being elevated as an Associate Minister at Unity Missionary Baptist Church under the mentorship of the late Rev. Dr. Valmon D. Stotts. In March 2020, he was called to lead the congregation as its Pastor.

Stepping into this role at the onset of a global pandemic, Pastor Warfield demonstrated visionary leadership by immediately launching a dynamic online ministry. This initiative ensured that the Unity Baptist Church family remained connected through virtual Sunday school, Bible study, and worship services, leading to remarkable spiritual and financial growth and a consistent influx of new members. Since then, he has spearheaded a comprehensive revitalization of the church, rebuilding the music and deacon's ministries, relaunching teaching programs, overseeing significant building improvements, and investing in technology to enhance the worship experience for all.

Previously, Pastor Warfield served with distinction for nearly 15 years as the sixth Pastor of Mt. Vernon Missionary Baptist Church. There, he built upon a rich legacy of community engagement, establishing the church as a beacon of hope in the Brightmoor neighborhood through vibrant outreach and powerful worship services.

Pastor Warfield's commitment to social uplift is woven into the fabric of his ministry. As president of the Brightmoor Alliance, he transformed the organization by securing funding to hire a full-time staff. His twelve-year tenure as Chairman of Trinity Community Development Corporation was marked by extraordinary success; he led a program that recruited, trained, and placed over 1,400 young people in summer employment, distributing more than $1 million in wages and empowering the next generation.

His civic leadership extends to the highest levels of city and state government. Appointed by former Detroit Mayor Dave Bing, he served two terms as Chair of the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners. In this critical role, he led pivotal reforms, including reconstituting the Office of the Chief Investigator to ensure civilian oversight, overhauling the police towing system, and guiding the selection process for a new Chief of Police. Governor Rick Snyder appointed him to three terms on the Michigan Parole Board, where his expertise was recognized nationally, leading to his selection as a trainer for new parole board members by the National Institute of Corrections.

Today, he continues his work in public accountability as the Chief Investigator for the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners, where he leads a team dedicated to upholding the rights and safety of Detroit's citizens.

Pastor Warfield has been married to his wife, Jacqueline, for 33 years. He is the proud father of Jessica, Jerome Jr., and Justin, and the loving grandfather of Alayah Warfield. His life and work stand as a powerful example of faith in action, inspiring all who have the privilege of knowing him.

a righteous man availeth much."
